C. S. O'Hare & Son, at 1213 Seventh street and the corner of Fourth and H streets northwest, are in the field for the holiday season with a line of choice groceries, which it would be difficult to excel. Among the articles for sale. New York cider, New England rum and a new brand of Amarican champague are conspicuous. In fact, every table luxury smilable for Christmas can be found on his shelves, and, as his stock is large, he is selling at a very small margin.

There is no better place in the city to purchase Christmas presents such as tollet articles, than R. K. Helphenstine's Ebblit House drug store, corner Fourteenth and F streets. Nothing makes a more acceptable present to the fair sex than a beautiful cut-glass bottle filled with superior cologue. These can be found at Helphenstine's in a great variety of shapes; also, a most complete stock of toilet sets and other articles for bureau altoriment.

Pure Air.

It is known that exhalations from sewers finding their way into houses through drain pipes are hurtful, often causing sickness and doubt to the inmates and spreading disease throughout whole neighborhoods. Means of excluding it, which have been sought in vain for years, have at last been found by Mr. William F. Downey. The sewer valve trap does this work with cortainty, keeping out back-water as well and furnishing abundant, pure air for ventilation. Only one trap is tecded for each house, and it can be place! in old houses without any change in the part in position at is during cost. It is on exhibition at No. 1435 Pennsylvania avenue.
